UK's leading specialist photographic retailer, Jessops, retained Fusion's services for the expansion of its new branch network across the UK and Ireland.

Beginning with preliminary site assessments, Fusion work alongside the client at every stage to provide a comprehensive consultancy service including outline designs, detailed fit-out schemes, contract administration and cost management.

In addition, Fusion play a pivotal role in maintaining the flow of information between landlord, tenant (Jessops), agent and the legal teams, to ensure good communication and harmony between all parties.

What the client said: "Investing in the services of Fusion has made a significant contribution to the smooth roll-out of stores through achieving greater cost efficiencies in delivering a first class product on time and to budget."
